

When watching the baseball games on MSG network, the captioning works for the first inning and then sometimes disappears for a couple of innings, reappears, disappears. I'm sure they turn it off during the breaks and maybe forget to turn it back on. In domed parks, it is difficult to hear the announcers with the noise level and I depend on the captioning. Please keep the captioning intact. Thank you, Marie Nordling